No precedent can be found in the history of this Commonwealth where a Governor has pardoned a fugitive from justice, but, on the contrary, precedents are many, where the Governors have declined to consider such cases. You doubtless know that if a criminal should become a fugitive, while his case is pending in the Court of Appeals, that a criminal is entitled to ask the courts to relieve him, he must submit himself to the custody of the law. This is a wise and wholesome rule, never departed from by the courts, and no Governor of this Commonwealth has ever ignored it, before. If he has the right to do so, it ought to be taken from him, as in Pennsylvania. —Kentucky State Journal.

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefitted by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Young men's suits with plenty of grace and full of ginger—built in in a way that grey-beards won't fancy and built in that fancy way because they're not meant for old folk. Wide-shouldered coats. Built-out chests and shapely waists. Full-pegged trousers with the new wide spring cuff at bottom. The shape that you find in 'em the first day will last to the last. In a brilliant speech, Senator Bailey attacked the pending tariff measure, denouncing the principle of protection and demanding an income tax in order that the wealthy may bear a just proportion of the country's expenses. Senator Aldrich and several other Republicans engaged in colloquies with the Texas Senator, who more than held his own, and during the latter part of his speech there were few interruptions.

BEACH HARGIS was given a life sentence for killing his father, Judge Jas. Hargis, at Jackson. The trial was held at Irvine and the jury was made up of Madison county men. At first the jury seemed hopelessly divided but the members got together about 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and returned the above verdict, which is very satisfactory to the public.

DON'T draw conclusions too quickly, dear reader. The Congressman Edwards who wants the salaries of the members reduced to the former figure is not the Edwards of the bloody Eleventh, but a Georgian and a democrat. Kentucky's Congressman Edwards belongs to a party which wants all that's coming and then some.

If Ex-Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League J. W. West is guilty of the charges made against him he is deserving of the most ignominious death. However, to us his acts are those of a crazy man and he should be confined in some asylum. Under no circumstances should he be permitted to prey at large.

FRANKFORT has 31 saloons, or one to each 400 inhabitants. Our good brother of the Kentucky State Journal should certainly get enough of open saloons and red liquor there without wanting whisky sold at every cross roads in Kentucky.

WE did not intend to even intimate that the editor of the Kentucky State Journal is a whisky drinker. We know too well to the contrary. And that makes us wonder the more why he is such a strong advocate of open saloons.

Former Representative Joseph W. Babcock, of Wisconsin, for 14 years a member of the lower House of Congress, and for many years chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee, is dead.

Judge Watts Parker, for circuit judge, Dan W. Scott, for sheriff, and S. J. Moore, for assessor, have withdrawn from the democratic primary to be held in Lexington and Fayette county, May 4. They charge a raw deal in the selection of election officers.

Three candidates, W. B. Hawkins, Charles Foushee and Eli Staton, withdrew from the Fayette county Democratic primary after the election officers were announced. Hawkins and Foushee complain that they did not receive fair treatment, though it was pointed out that the so-called factions of "antis" had received more election officers than the "regulars."

Didn't Bring The Suit.

There is a bit of history connected with the charges against W. S. Taylor which has never been published. The writer was at the time of the assassination, editing the INTERIOR JOURNAL at Stanford. On the day that Gov. Goebel was shot we started from our home to come to Frankfort to keep an engagement with him with reference to the passage of a bill connected with the Reform School, of which we were a trustee. He was to introduce it in the Senate the following day. En route we heard of the shot, but came on anyway and thereby became an eye witness to the devilish deeds of those dressed in a little brief authority. We heard the reading by Gen. Roger Williams, who stopped the members at the door of the capitol by soldiers with bayoneted guns, of the proclamation of Taylor ordering the Legislature to meet at London, saw the body chased through the streets as it attempted to meet at several places, heard the tramp of soldiery beneath the wounded statesman's room and the ribald jests of heartless creatures in uniform, saw the capitol surrounded by soldiers and the entrance of civil officers prevented, together with other disgraceful scenes that we can never forget.

On our return to Stanford we wrote and printed the first article charging Taylor and his crowd with the crime of conspiring to assassinate Senator Goebel and put the case up so plainly that he was greatly incensed. In order to put up a bluff, he sent for John W. Yerkes, as we were shortly afterward informed, and engaged him to bring suit for libel against us and our paper, but before it could be instituted things got too hot for him, and like the cringing coward that conscience makes of the guilty, he fled to the arms of an assassin lover in Indiana and begged to be saved from the wrath to come.

It may not be too late yet for him to bring the suit. If not, he can charge that we will reiterate our belief in his guilt and notwithstanding the white-wash applied to him and the other hellions connected with the assassination of Gov. Goebel, we are firmly of the opinion that he and they should all dangle at the end of ropes for "the worst crime in our history."—Kentucky State Journal.

HUNN & COFFEY, the Moreland general merchants, got in a car-load of cement from Oklahoma Tuesday the freight on which was $202. By the way this is the 12th car load of cement, salt, wire, etc., they have received since Jan. 1.

ON next Monday the classic Derby will be run at Louisville and those of our sports who can raise the "dough" will witness the big event. Considerable local money will go on Senator Hubble's T. M. Green, which will be one of the favorites in the track betting.

SUN BROS.' circus tents will be stretched here to-morrow, Saturday, and the people will be here from the salt works. The show is said to be A 1 in every particular and is deserving of the good crowd it will likely have. Of course you will have to go to take care of the children.

PRODUCE.—Moreland is a great town for produce. William Merriman did about $30,000 worth of business in that line there last year and if the remaining eight months are as good as the four that have passed he will do $36,000 worth this year. Seven wagons of produce arrived in Moreland at one time the other day.

REV. J. W. WEST, superintendent of the Kentucky Anti-Saloon League, has resigned and will leave the State, resting under the dark charge of ungentlemanly and indecent conduct, brought by two young girls at Catlettsburg. West admits what he describes as indiscretions. This sweet-scented geranium is the same West who came here some weeks ago and made an address on the temperance question.

SEVERAL friends of the opera house manager have suggested to him that perhaps some people do not attend shows here because the price is too steep. Desiring to please the public in every way possible he has decided to cut the prices of admission for awhile at least to 25c for children, 35c for adults and 50c for reserved seats, and on next Monday night when "Charley's Aunt" will hold the boards these prices will prevail. A number of our people have seen "Charley's Aunt" and they say it is the funniest play imaginable. Be sure to get seats early for the prospects for a good crowd are very flattering and the management doesn't want anybody to have to stand up.

FORMER Stanford people who are now citizens of Paris are doing nicely there. Mr. J. W. Hayden is doing a thriving wholesale business, James C. Engleman is jeweler for A. J. Winter's big jewelry store, Walter and Eugene Martin are prospering in the livery business, Walter O. Scott has a fine position with the L. & N. and J. L. Chrisman is making money out of his greenhouse. Mr. C. is the only florist in Paris and is enjoying the splendid patronage he is receiving. Paris is a hustling little city and has one of the best court houses and graded school buildings in the State. Interurban cars leave Paris for Lexington each hour in the day and 44 passenger trains come and go each 24 hours.

TRY "Porosknit" union suits. Cummins & Wearen.

MISS LENA L. HAMPTON, the up-to-date florist of Stanford, is erecting a large green house which will be given exclusively to the culture of roses. We are glad to note the splendid success of this young lady.

AN effort was made to break into W. S. Hilton's store at Junction City at an early hour Wednesday morning but the would-be burglars were evidently scared off. Lair's blood hounds were brought from Hustonville and while they made several trails no clue was furnished.

BILL LEE, king of the blind tiger operators, has skipped out, taking with him Mattie Fish, also colored. He was to have been tried yesterday on seven counts of liquor selling but when the hour for trial arrived William was not to be found. Deputy Sheriff William Hester is on his bond for $300 and the chances are that he will have to "come across" with that amount.

Why He Was Willing.

A warning against probing too deeply into the motives of a man is contained in this story from the New York Sun. A tale of juryman appeared before a certain Missouri judge and every man explained that it would mean disaster to him to serve at that term of court—all but a little fellow at the end of the line, a hunter, who had lived in a cabin on the creek all his life.

"You have no excuse to offer?" asked the surprised judge.

"No, sir."

"Haven't got a sick mother-in-law, needing your attention?"

"No, sir; I ain't married."

"What about your crop?"

"Don't raise anything."

"No fence to fix up?"

"Haven't got a fence on the place."

"You think you can spare the time to serve on a jury two weeks?"

"Sure."

The Judge sat a while and meditated. Reaching over, he whispered to the clerk, who shook his head in perplexity. Then the Judge's curiosity got the better of him.

"You are the only man who has got the time to serve your country as a jurymen," he said. "Would you mind telling me how it happens?"

"Sure not," the little man replied promptly, "I heard you was going to try Jake Billings this term. He shot a dog o' mine onct."

At the horse show at Lancaster Monday the Lincoln county stallions attracted much attention. W. O. Walker's Carroll Preston, D. S. Carpenter's Dignity Dare, E. Smith Powell's Almont Dare, Dr. G. G. Perry's Don Varrick, A. T. Traylor & Sons' Stonewall Jackson, Jr., were well shown and had premiums been offered they would have carried off the lion's share.

Words To Freeze The Soul.

"Your son has consumption. His case is hopeless." These appalling words were spoken to Geo. E. Blevens, a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C., by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. "After three weeks' use," writes Mr. Blevens "he was as well as ever. I would not take all the money in the world for what it did for my boy." Infalible for coughs and colds, it's the safest, surest cure of desperate lung diseases on earth. 50c. and $1. Guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free. Penny's Drug Store.

Howe's Great London Circus to be Here.

(The Times, Stroudsburg, Pa., Aug. 20, 1908.)

Howe's Great London Shows visited this town yesterday. The steet parade was very pleasing as there were many open cages of lions and tigers that were worth looking at. The performances in the afternoon and evening were the best ever seen here. The trained horses and bareback riding were first class in every role. The trapeze and bar performances and the funny set of clowns were the best that any show ever carried. In fact, it is the cleanest, most refined and up-to-date circus that has exhibited here in several years and should it ever return it will have such a large crowd that it will be hard to get it under canvas. They are pleasant people to do business with. At Stanford, Friday, May 7th.

Season of 1909.

Sire of Calvin C. 2:19 3/4, Al Burns, 2:29 3/4, and six others with times from 2:30 to 2:18, those are the only ones that were ever handled for speed. Also the sire of one dam with one in the 2:30 list. Sired by Gambetta Wilkes 2:19 3/4, the sire of 30 in the 2:30 list, 16 in 2:30 and better, claimed to be the greatest sire in the world. 1st dam Daisy Field (grand dam of 5 with records of from 2:17 to 2:08 3/4) by Enfield 2:29, son of Hambletonian, 1st dam by Seeley's American Star. Q. 2:17 3/4, 1st dam by Old Joe, sire of 15 in the 2:30 list and dam by Old Joe, sire of the dam of J. Q. 2:17 3/4.

Galton's colts have gone against and defeated the best in harness classes and roadster rings, they are in great demand, selling as high as $1,000 after maturity, yearlings from $150 to $250. Galton will stand at my stable 2 miles West of Hustonville on Bradfordville pike at $15 to insure a living colt.

Money due if mare is traded after being bred. Plenty of grass at $2.50 per month, saved expressly for mares, no other stock mixed with mares, have grass lots and large stables for mares to foal. Grain fed at cost.

DON VARRICK.

This magnificently bred young stallion will make the season of 1909 at my stable at Stanford, Ky., better known as the "B. Bailey place" at $15 to insure a living colt.

Don Varrick is 16 1/2, a beautiful chestnut, short back, heavy bone; in fact the highest type of the trotter. He is by the great Standard Silver 2:00 3/4, that won the $5,000 Transylvania in a seven heat race in 1902 and the same year won the $10,000 Bonner Memorial and the M. & M. in broken heats and sold for $21,000 and later sold for $25,000. Don Varrick is bred exactly like Spanish Queen, that won the $5,000 Transylvania in 1908, making a record of 2:07 and was classed as one of the big four, being one of the greatest money winners on the grand circuit last year. Onward Silver is by Onward, one of the greatest and best sons of George Wilkes. Onward's dam was the dam of Director, sire of that great family of trotters and pacers.

Don Varrick's 1st dam was by Wilkes 2:07 3/4, George Wilkes, a full sister to The Wag 2:15 3/4, and half sister to Madeline Patchen, the dam of Rubber, 2:10, Winchester 2:10 3/4, Billy Wip 2:20 3/4, and Miss R 2:30; 2nd dam Mary, by Roger's Grey Eagle, the dam of The Wag 2:15 3/4, Madeline Patchen, the dam of Rubber 2:10, Winchester 2:10 3/4, Billy Wip 2:20 3/4, and Miss R 2:30.

Don Varrick's dam produced Dr. Conner that paced a public half mile on the Lexington track at 10 months in 1907 and sold to N. W. Hubinger, of New Haven, Conn., for $1,000. She also produced Maggie Jo that trotted a half mile on the same track at 16 months in 1907 and sold for $500.

Please note the rich inheritance of speed on both sides—not a missing link for generations. Bred to this fellow and you can't miss the three things every breeder looks for—size, speed and looks. See him before booking your mares. Season money due when mares are mated with, or bred to another horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day and all care taken but will not be responsible for accidents or escapes.
